Murder? Justice? Or revenge!!

T. C. Hawkins, court-martialed and hanged, 1917, Texas

CAMP LOGAN

After weeks of harassment, members of a black military unit—the 24th Infantry Regiment—took up arms and marched to the west end of Houston, Texas from their bivouac at Camp Logan. Celeste Bedford Walker's WWI military drama, is a depiction of a true historical incident that offers a riveting glimpse into the hearts and souls of seven soldiers—a black sergeant, five infantrymen and their white captain.
