

harlem is...

ART

A REFLECTION OF COMMUNITY

reception

6pm

Tuesday, July 19th, 2005

The LeRoy Neiman Gallery
at Columbia University

exhibition dates

June 10, 2005 - August 10, 2005

A public art and education program of
COMMUNITY WORKS

Community Works, in a unique collaboration with the the Harlem Arts Alliance, the Lower Manhattan Cultural Council and Columbia University, invites you to a reception harlem is... ART

A REFLECTION OF COMMUNITY

Tuesday • July 19th, 2005
6pm Reception

The LeRoy Neiman Gallery at Columbia University
Dodge Hall • 2960 Broadway (at 116th Street)

RSVP by calling Community Works at 212-459-1854

harlem is... Art is the premiere in a series of exhibitions that explore the rich legacy of art in Harlem and celebrates its visual artist traditions—from the Harlem Renaissance and the Harlem Arts Guild, to the Weusi artists and the Black Arts movement, to the contemporary art movement of today.

exhibition dates

June 10, 2005 – August 10, 2005
Mon – Thu: 9am – 6pm
Fri: 9am – 12 noon

harlem is... Art is an important new component of harlem is..., Community Works' landmark public exhibition series that celebrates the rich history, culture and people of this world renowned community at sites citywide.

For more information on harlem is... call Community Works at 212-459-1854 or visit www.communityworksnyc.org.

participating artists

Aleathia Brown
Rodriguez Calero
Marcos Dimas
Mark Gagnon
Susan Grossman
Inge Hardison
M. Scott Johnson
Nina Olson
Ademola Olugebefola
Lynn Ruffins Cave
Reuben Sinha
Todd Stone
Grace Williams

A public art and education program of COMMUNITY WORKS

Directions to exhibition site By subway: Take the #1 train to 116th Street. You can also take the #2 and #3 express trains to 96th Street but be sure to transfer to the #1 local. Five bus lines serve the Columbia neighborhood: M4, M5, M11, M104.